

THERE'S A PLACE FOR YOU IN UCONN CHOIRS

Welcome to UConn!

Summer is here, and at the University of Connecticut, we are excited about the arrival of all UConn students on campus in the fall. For those of us in UConn Choirs, we are especially looking forward to meeting our incoming freshman singers and any student or community member who hasn't sung in a UConn Choir before. As Director of Choral Studies and on behalf of all UConn choral directors as well as the UConn Choirs Student Officers, I welcome you to your new adventure. At UConn, there are many opportunities to showcase your talent and interest in singing with a music department that has a long tradition of choral excellence and joy in making music. There is no better way to use your talent, meet new people, and help create something amazing than to sing with a UConn choir. Whether you are a Music major with eyes on an international career in opera, or a pre-med, Ag., Education, Kinesiology, Engineering, or any other major looking for an escape from the pressures of your core classes, there is a place for you in UConn Choirs. Freshman or grad student, we look forward to meeting you! -Dr. Jamie Spillane

We will hold Choral Placement Hearings for incoming and returning singers on the Saturday, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday of the first few days on campus (August 24-Aug. 27). These placement hearings are a low-stress way for us to get to know your voice and decide which choral ensemble would be best for you. These hearings will be held in the Music Library Building that can be found at the southern end of campus (across the street from the Dog Lane Café in Storrs Center).

Choral Placement Hearings be scheduled using a Doodle Poll. Follow the link on the UConn Choirs webpage (Google UConn Choirs) to schedule a time. If you have any questions, please send an e-mail to uconnchoirs@uconn.edu or any of the choir directors listed on the UConn Choirs Webpage. You can also call the Choral Office at the number below.
